

Rear Horned Baboon (Ceratofyrus darlingi)

Country: Botswana, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, and South Africa

Diet: Prey items smaller than themselves.

Habitat: Desert and grassland

Behavior: They are fossorial obligate burrowers, which means it will make its home in a deep in an underground burrow that it digs.

Lifespan: Females 13-15 years/Males 2-4 years  under human care

Growth and Development: They grow very fast and are fully grown within two years.

Endangered Status: Not Listed

Fun Fact: Does not have urticating hairs.